

Dear J. R. and Candy Smith,

Congratulations Angel Wingsmile Mission Starting.

These days, as the economy worsens a lot of people suffer from depression. You wanted to brighten the neighborhood with the love of Christ and founded the Angel Wingsmile Mission. My wife and I heartfully congratulate you.

Like a lamp to illuminate the darkness of the world getting brighter and small fires spread out, we hope a beautiful mind to be spread. Our seed money is small, but would like to help with the sponsorship of your mission. Thank you.
